

« Back | Print

MEP Insider

---

Recent promotions and hires.

By -- Consulting-Specifying Engineer, May 13, 2009

GRAEF announced the election of six associates in 2009 for its Milwaukee, Chicago, and Orlando, Fla. offices. Terry Foster, PE, Paul Forski, PE, Bryan Mentzel, Joseph Pepitone, Jr., Mike Rudolph, and Steve Schowalter, PE were nominated and elected as associates.

New York City-based Dagher Engineering announced that Michael Levine, PE, joined the firm as executive vice president and chief operating officer. Levine has more than 35 years of experience in corporate leadership and engineering.

Albany, N.Y.-based EYP Architecture & Engineering announced John Kempf as the new chief financial officer. Kempf has more than 18 years of financial and strategic planning, risk management, and leadership experience. Additionally, EYP announced the Judy Pullar will be the new director of business development and principal. Pullar has more than 20 years in the AEC industry.

Chicago-based Environmental Systems Design named David P. Callan, PE, LEED AP, to the position of senior vice president and chief technical director.

Frankfurt, Germany-based Emporis named Brian Tonry as the new chief marketing officer, in which he will head up the marketing and product development activities.

Salt Lake City-based Total Building Commissioning Inc. named Todd Rindlibaker, PE, LEED AP, as vice president. Rindlibaker has 16 years of HVAC, plumbing, and commissioning business experience.

« Back | Print

© 2009 Reed Business Information, a division of Reed Elsevier Inc. All rights reserved.