Facts

- This building contains 13 floors of office space topped by two tall, but small, mechanical penthouses.
- The 162-foot height given by the Sanborn Fire Insurance Company is believed to be to the top of the main parapet.
- Due to superstition in America (and other countries) this building is common in that it does not count a 13th floor; the 14th floor is above the 12th floor.
- This building was acquired in 1976 by the City of Jackson as the new city hall.
