Facts

- This building will likely reach 1000 feet, surpassing the Hancock Place to become the tallest in Boston.

- The proposal is in response to Mayor Thomas Menino's call in Spring 2006 for a new tallest building in Boston's Financial District.
- It will include public parks on the ground level (Town Green) and the rooftop (Lookout Garden), high above the city.
- Trans National Properties lead by Steven Belkin submitted what is to be the only proposal for the construction of 115 Federal Street.
